

Privacy Policy of www.nodolini.com

THE PURPOSE OF THIS NOTICE

This page describes the site management methods in relation to processing of users' personal data. These privacy practices are provided also according to art. 13 of Italian Legislative Decree no. 196 of 20 June 2003 – Data protection act – for whosoever interacts with the web services accessible over the Internet at the address:

www.nodolini.com

The privacy practices are provided exclusively for the site in question and not for any other websites that may be accessible by following our links, for which Nodolini Sprinklers assumes no liability. The indications supplied below are based also on the guidelines inferred from the provisions of art. 29 of directive 95/46/EC and with special reference to the collection of personal data over the Internet, with the aim of identifying the minimum measures that must be implemented in relation to interested parties in order to guarantee the correctness and lawfulness of said practices.

DATA CONTROLLER

After consulting this site certain data may be processed relative to identified or identifiable persons. The “Data Controller” responsible for data processing is Nodolini Sprinklers with offices in Via C. Iotti 55 - 42045 - Luzzara (RE) - Italy.

PLACE OF DATA PROCESSING

The data, processed for the purposes of the web services of this website, is processed at the premises of the provider where the server is located. The data is processed only by the employees, collaborators or persons appointed for data processing by the Data Controller, or where required by persons in charge of occasional maintenance operations. The data may also be viewed by companies managing the website, solely for technical accesses related to the maintenance and management of the website and the server. No data originating from the Web service are disclosed or diffused. Personal data submitted by users who make requests for informative material will be used for the sole purpose of providing the requested service and will be disclosed to third parties only if necessary for the required purpose (refer to the chapter “optional provision of data”).

TYPES OF DATA PROCESSED

Navigation Data

During normal operation, the computer systems and software procedures used for the functioning of this website acquire certain personal data through the use of Internet communication protocols. Such information is not acquired in order to be associated with identified data subjects but due to its nature it could enable users to be identified by means of processing and association with data in the possession of third parties. This category of data includes IP addresses or domain names of computers used by persons who connect to the site, the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the requested resources, the time of the request, the method used for submitting the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the response given by the server (success, error, etc.) and other parameters relating to the user's operating system and computer environment. These data are used solely to obtain anonymous statistical information on use of the website and to verify its correct operation and they are deleted immediately after processing. Such data may be used to establish responsibility in the case of possible computer crime committed to the detriment of the site.

Data submitted voluntarily by the user

Whenever a party opts to voluntarily and explicitly send an e-mail to the addresses indicated on this site, the sender's address, as well as any other personal data included in the message, is subsequently retained for the purpose of responding to requests. Specific summary information will be gradually included or displayed in the pages of the site created for special optional services.

OPTIONAL PROVISION OF DATA

Apart from the matters specified in relation to navigation data, the user is free to supply personal data in the application forms or anyway specified in the contacts to request information material or other communications. Refusal to provide personal data may make it impossible to fulfil the request. For full disclosure we remind you that in certain cases (unrelated to ordinary management of this site) the Authorities can request details and information pursuant to art. 157 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, for the purposes of control of personal data processing. In such cases the provision of data is mandatory and failure to comply will result in the application of an administrative penalty. 'User name' and 'password': if you are prompted to choose a 'user name' and 'password' to gain access to reserved sections of the site, when you enter this information you automatically assume responsibility for keeping them secret and informing us immediately if they are used without your authorisation.

DATA PROCESSING METHODS

Personal data are processed using automated tools and only for the period of time strictly necessary to achieve the objectives for which they were collected. Specific security measures are observed in order to prevent the loss, illegal or improper use of data as well as unauthorized access, according to the obligations to comply with minimum security measures. In order to supply a complete service our portal contains links to other websites that are not under our control. We cannot be held liable for errors, contents, cookies, publication of illegal or immoral contents, banners or files that do not comply with the requirements of statutory legislation or for compliance with the Data protection act of sites not managed by us that are referred to as on our site. To help us improve our service we ask users to kindly inform us immediately of any malfunctions or abuse and send any suggestions they may have by e-mail to: info@nodolini.com

RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The persons to whom the personal data refer are entitled, at any time, to obtain confirmation of whether or not said data exists and to be informed of the contents and origin of said data. Data subjects are also entitled to verify the accuracy of their data or request integration, updating or correction of their data (art. 7 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003). In accordance with the same article, data subjects are also entitled to demand that any data processed in violation of the law be deleted, transformed into anonymous form or blocked and to withdraw their consent, for legitimate motives, for processing of their data.

Such requests should be addressed to Nodolini Sprinklers Via C. Iotti 55 - 42045 - Luzzara (RE) – Italy or sent by e-mail to: info@nodolini.com

COOKIES

A cookie is a text that is placed on the hard drive of a computer only once authorization has been granted. If authorized, the text is downloaded to a small file.

Cookies act as security filters to allow access to a service and they allow Web applications to send information to individual users.

For technical reasons strictly related to computer security the portal uses session cookies (cookies that are automatically deleted by the user's browser when it is closed) and saves the IP address of visitors who access this page. No personal data of users are acquired by the site in this regard. Cookies are not utilised for the transmission of personal information.

Cookies are used on the website www.nodolini.com exclusively to save, on request of the user and for a limited number of days (30), the user's access identification (id) in order to allow safe and efficient navigation of the site.

No personal data are acquired by the site in this regard.

No cookies are utilised for the transmission of personal information and no user tracking systems are employed.

The cookies used on this site do not make use of other digital techniques that may potentially impact the privacy of user navigation and they do not permit the acquisition of users' personal identification data.

NAVIGATION DATA AND STATISTICS COLLECTED BY THIRD PARTIES

In accordance with customary practice on the Internet, this site utilises statistical analysis tools supplied and managed by third parties and able to collect and track certain navigation data.

It should be noted that a large number of websites in Italy and in other countries make routine use of outsourced technology and solutions of this type, but very few mention this in their "Privacy Practices". We have chosen to disclose this fact and provide information in the fairest and most transparent manner possible: we are anyway always at your disposal for any further information or clarifications you may require.

Since these data are gathered using different tools and by companies other than the site managing company, the data in question are not physically retained by Nodolini, which can use them only on a read-only basis and cannot edit or delete them independently. For these operations and for a more detailed explanation of the privacy practices applicable to such data, users should contact the relative data controller directly, i.e. the company that provides the statistical service utilized.

The third party services utilised on this site are the following:

- Google Analytics (supplied by: Google Inc. 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway – Mountain View CA 94043, USA)

INFORMATION ON GOOGLE ANALYTICS

This site uses Google Analytics, which is a web analysis service supplied by Google Inc.

("Google"). Google Analytics uses cookies, i.e. text files that are placed on your computer to allow the website to analyse how users interact with the site. The information generated by the cookie concerning your use of the website (including your IP address) is transmitted to and stored on Google's servers in the USA. Google uses this information to track and examine your use of the website, compile reports on website activities for site operators, and provide other services relative to website activities and Internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties in cases where this is required by law or in cases where said third parties process the information on behalf of Google. Google will not link your IP address to any other information in its possession. You can disable the use of cookies by selecting the relevant setting in your browser, although this may prevent you from using all the functions of this website. By using this website you give your consent to the processing of your data by Google using the methods and for the purposes indicated above. Any requests related to the data utilised for this processing activity must be addressed to the Data Controller (Google Inc.).

APPLICATION OF THE PRIVACY POLICY

If you have any questions concerning these Privacy Practices, first contact Nodolini by sending an e-mail to info@nodolini.com

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

Nodolini reserves the right to update this Privacy Policy to adapt it to reflect changes in the law and to take into consideration suggestions made by employees, customers, collaborators and users. If Nodolini makes changes to this Privacy Policy, the word 'update' will appear alongside the link to the Privacy practices in the main privacy page www.nodolini.com. If substantial amendments are made to the Privacy Policy Nodolini will publish them in a visible manner.
